HOLINESS MEETINGS BEING WELL ATTENDED

MEETINGS WILL CLOSE SUNDAY EVENING.

ARE A HAPPY LOT OF PEOPLE

More Tents Occupied Than Last Year; Same Song Leader As Last Meeting; Quartet Is An Attraction; Testimonies Are Interesting.

The meetings of the Southern California Holiness Association are in full swing at Aramar, and the attendance is very satisfactory to those in charge of the association affairs this year. There were 46 tents occupied the opening day of last year, and this year 60 had been prepared but were inadequate to care for all that asked for accommodations the opening day, Friday of last week, and 20 more were furnished.

Rev. F. D. Mather, a well-known retired Methodist pastor of Pasadena, is in charge of the grounds this year, and is assisted by Mrs. Mather, and they have been about the busiest couple in this section of the state since the opening morning, as the work is all new to them, but they have emerged with flying colors, and are now enjoying the work. Dr. Carl Seiter of Pasadena has charge of the grocery, confectionery and lunch, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Paine the cafeteria.

Rev. E. F. Wilde, who was song leader last year, is in charge of this important branch of the work again this year, and is doing splendid work. One of the attractions of the meetings is the quartet, known as the Wilde-Knight evangelists of the Nazarene church. The quartet is composed of two men and two women, and each of them play a guitar accompaniment.

The evangelists this year are Rev. O. B. Ong, a noted Quaker evangelist, and Rev. Frank L. Stevens of the Evangelical church.

There was a large attendance present Sunday night and Rev. Ong had charge of the services, and took for his text the verses in the Bible telling of the rich man and Lazarus, the beggar. The speaker said that Lazarus did not go to heaven just because he happened to be a beggar, but for the fact that his state of consciousness permitted him to know God, although his only companions were the dogs that licked his sores.

One of the interesting features about the meetings is the testimonies, which indicate beyond doubt that these people are among the most happy and contented to be found in the country today. There is no place for the pessimist in the Holiness campmeetings, as they are all apparently strongly imbued with optimistic tendencies, and beyond doubt have a greater insight of the spiritual life than has the average citizen. The happy expression on their faces, the frank and open expressions of gratitude for the blessings of Divine Love is indicative of an undoubted sincerity of purpose, and develops the fact that members of the Holiness Association have a religion that means much to them, although one may not agree with their teachings.

The Holiness Association is interdenominational, most of the members apparently being from the Methodist, Quaker and Nazarene churches.

NEW CARRIER FOR RURAL ROUTE No. 1

There is a new man in charge of delivering the mail on rural route no. 1, being supplied by the Huntington Beach postoffice. The new man is Samuel Hosack of Santa Ana, who succeeded Eugene Davis Monday morning. Mr. Davis is now employed by the Union Oil Co. in Anaheim.

Mr. Hosack is a brother of Thomas Hosack who was principal of the Westminster school for 8 years, and will soon move to Huntington Beach.

CAR OF LIMAS SHIPPED TO ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

A car of lima beans left the Huntington Beach warehouse, Monday, consigned to a firm in Atlanta, Georgia. There would be no occasion for mentioning this shipment but for the fact that it is the first one in several months, owing to the government regulations.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY TRUSTEES.

PETITION ASKING FOR ELECTION DISREGARDED.

The most important matter considered at the trustees' meeting Monday night was the petition signed by 197 voters asking that an election be called for the purpose of allowing the voters to pass on the question of employing a city manager. The petition was considered in executive session, and the report was that the request be disregarded, as it did not meet the requirements of the law.

The city manager was instructed to install protectors for the globes on the ornamental light posts on the pier, at an estimated cost of $200.

A renewal was granted B. S. White to operate a pool and billiard room.

It was decided to improve Fifteenth street, from Ocean avenue to the Grammar school, as some other streets have been improved recently. Mrs. F. H. Rigdon was appointed as a member of the library board to succeed Mrs. C. H. Howard. This is a splendid appointment and no doubt will give general satisfaction.

The city manager was directed to proceed with weed cleaning.

RECITAL WILL BE GIVEN MONDAY NIGHT.

PUPILS OF VALENTINE CONSERVATORY TO PERFORM.

There will be a recital in Odd Fellows' hall next Monday night by the pupils of the Valentine Conservatory of Music and Arts.

This will be the third recital given in this hall since Mrs. Cunningham opened her conservatory in Huntington Beach, and in the past these musical affairs have attracted considerable attention, and the one Monday night will no doubt be largely attended. A splendid program has been arranged.

MEETING OF CHAMBER COMMERCE TONIGHT

IN THE PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO ATTEND

Several Matters of Considerable Importance May Be Discussed; Good Attendance Is Expected.

There will be a meeting of the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce in the library building this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, being the regular meeting for June, which was postponed last week on account of the repairs being made at the library.

There may or may not be several matters of importance to the citizens of the community discussed at this meeting, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

WAR COMFORT COMMITTEE.

The Christian Science War Comfort Committee will appreciate the following articles being left at the distribution room of the church, Eighth and Olive: Money, with which to buy yarn for knitting; old clothes, old stockings or socks, old sheets or pillows, old buttons, colored or white thread, new material for quilt blocks, wrapping paper, coat hangers, or almost any article you cannot use.

The assistance of those who can sew or knit will be appreciated.

COUSIN OF MRS. NUTT FALLS ON BATTLEFIELD.

Arthur F. Bond of Los Angeles is among the Liberty boys reported as having fallen on the battlefield in France. He is a cousin of Mrs. Chas. R. Nutt, and, so far as known, is the first relative of anyone in this community to lay down his life for the cause of humanity. A brother who enlisted at the same time is still at Camp Kearny.

COOKED FOOD SALE SATURDAY.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will conduct a cooked food sale at the church Saturday, July 6, beginning at 10:30.

WINTER CABBAGE TO BE GROWN IN VICINITY

MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED ACRES SIGNED UP.

MAY BUILD PACKING HOUSE

Randolph Marketing Co. Will Handle Crop With Wm. C. O'Connor As Field Man.

There will be a new crop marketed in this district next winter, and the movement may be of sufficient magnitude to warrant the opening of a packing house to care for the product. The new field crop will be winter cabbage, which will probably be extensively grown on many ranches throughout the valley as well as on the mesa.

The growing of cabbage has been promoted by Wm. C. O'Connor, who is field manager for the Randolph Marketing Company of Los Angeles and so far 35 growers have signed up to grow 208 acres of cabbage the coming winter. The Randolph Marketing Co. is one of the big shippers and packers of Southern California, something like the California Vegetable Union.

It was necessary to have 200 acres in order to warrant the construction of a packing house, and Mr. O'Connor is of the opinion that the actual acreage seeded will be much larger than the above amount as many of those who have signed for small amounts will grow more. The Huntington Beach Company signed for 14 acres and completed the requirement, but much more than that acreage will be grown. There are several others who will sign contracts later which will materially increase the total for the initial season's output.

There will be an organization formed to be known as the Farmers' Produce Exchange, and there will be a meeting of the interested parties next Thursday evening, July 11th, at 8 o'clock in the basement of the public library building for that purpose.

The following growers have signed for the acreage following their names: Henry Worthing, 10; T. Inagawa, 2; C. C. Wilson, 5; Richard Taylor, 2; W. G. Thompson, 5; A. G. Thornton, 3; Ed. Russell, 1; Frank Dispatatro, 5; James M. Haptonstall, 10; W. T. Vandruft, 3; Sam Giesler, 5; Roy Kikuchi, 1; J. P. Hanson, 1; J. W. Renfro, 5; W. E. Griffith, 2; Frank Simpson, 2; L. D. Rush, 3; Frank P. Borchard, 5; J. J. Courreges, 5; D. Helmes, 5; C. C. Newland, 10; H. Tamura, 10; Y. Goto, 5; G. Schaaf, 1½; R. O. Wells, 12; K. Ishii, 5; R. C. Masters, 5; M. M. Anderson, 5; Chris. Nelson, 10; E. A. Leal, 10; George Coker, 5; T. Kanni, 12; Huntington Beach Co., 14; K. Ishida, 20. Total 208½.

HEART DAY WAS A BIG FINANCIAL SUCCESS.

RECEIPTS TOTALLED SUM OF $93.41.

Saturday of last week was "Heart Day" in Huntington Beach, and the total raised by the sale of hearts was $93.41, as reported by Mrs. Mildred B. Kennedy, who had charge of the campaign for funds for the Children's Home Society of California.

Mrs. Kennedy drafted young ladies and girls of the community for the day. Prizes were donated by merchants and awarded as follows: Idonah Conville, first prize, box of stationery donated by Obarr's Drug Store; Evelyn Wupperman, pair of silk hose given by M. A. Turner Co.; Gladys Rennie, hair bow, by McElfresh Mercantile Co.; George DeLapp, pocket knife, by Huntington Beach Hardware Co. Those who sold $5 worth were given a group of flags, and for $2.50 a silk flag. C. E. Lavering, cashier of the First National Bank, acted as treasurer.

Mrs. Kennedy wishes to thank the people of Westminster and Wintersburg for their co-operation and generous support for the "Heart Day" in their communities.

An aeroplane landed in the bean field a short distance north of the D. O. Stewart home, Saturday evening. The stop was only of a few minutes' duration, but attracted many persons.

DISCUSSES THIRD TERM PROPOSITION.

NO TEMPTATION NOR HONOR TO PRESIDENT.

Editor Huntington Beach News:

An ex-governor of Indiana attended the Democratic convention of that sovereign state, last week, and by bold declaration attempted to withdraw himself from the political discard, and this was the pronouncement he made: "President Wilson should be re-elected in 1920, a third term president."

The daring of the suggestion was accorded applause, due to unexpected periods, but beyond the sound of Mr. Handley's voice scarcely a ripple stirred the placid patriotism of the nation. The American people are not indifferent in these times to any notable discovery touching the just solution of our intricate problems, but deaf were the people to this slogan.

This is no time to discuss presidential possibilities, but all times are reasonable for the elimination of presidential impossibilities. First and foremost among these latter is President Wilson.

Washington's refusal to accept a third term, which was his for the tacit consent thereto, has been as binding on the presidential tenure as any constitutional provision could possibly have made it. His service to the nation through this patriotic refusal cannot be overestimated. Against this Gibraltar, the hero-worship of Gen. Grant, abetted by his personal wishes, broke in spray. A half century later the colossal ambition of Col. Roosevelt met its Armageddon, where the greater statesmanship of Washington was as strategy against design.

If now the American mind could grasp the third-term idea, a worthy recipient thereof could be found in our present chief executive. But who, knowing the man, his deep insight for fundamentals, his sustaining vision through ideals, can associate him with the destructive limitations of a third term? He has at all times truly interpreted the American heart-beat and discovered and expressed the world-need of true democracy. Now he is the world's First Citizen. He has wrought but little in comparison to the service that yet calls to him. When victory shall rest upon the Allies' banners, its ultimate ends shall yet await the guiding hand of its master spirit. The world-needs will require world-terms of adjustment; nowhere shall there be any subject-people; every place shall be decent to live in; the world shall be made "safe for democracy." In the councils of earth's mightiest men, the commanding ministry may be assigned to this captain of world-democracy, this president unto all peoples, our own Woodrow Wilson, for whom a third term could neither offer a temptation nor add an honor.

LIBRARY RECREATION PARK IS DEDICATED.

PUBLIC CAN ENJOY CROQUET AND QUILTS.

The Recreation park at the public library is now open to the public, and croquet and quilts may be enjoyed by those having sufficient time at their disposal and care for these amusements. There are three croquet fields, where 24 players can participate.

It is believed that this added feature to the library will be appreciated by the public, and members of the board are to be congratulated upon their enterprise in making the improvement.

CANDIDATE FOR CORONER WAS HERE MONDAY.

Charles D. Brown of Tustin, candidate for the office of coroner and public administrator, was in Huntington Beach, Monday afternoon, and was introduced about the city by E. E. French, president of the board of trustees. Mr. Brown states that he is not identified with any undertaking establishment and believes that the office should not be held by one in that line of business. He is a rancher in the Tustin district, and studied law in Iowa, which qualifies him for the office he seeks.

NOTICE OF MEETING.

There will be a meeting in the basement of the public library building, Eighth and Walnut, Thursday evening, July 11, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing the Farmers' Produce Exchange.

THE NEWS APOLOGIZES TO DR. SAMUEL G. HUFF

CONTROVERSY NOW A CLOSED INCIDENT.

INTEGRITY NEVER DOUBTED

Has Given Ten Years Of Faithful Service; Always Does What He Believes For the Best Interests Of School.

The controversy over the High school has been adjusted and the News hereby offers an apology to Dr. Samuel G. Huff, president of the High school board for the articles appearing in the issues of June 7 and 14 relative to the High school situation.

The editor of the News realizes that he is like some other persons when such matters arise for solution; he makes some statements that, perhaps, should not have been made, although the conditions at the time appeared to warrant them. The fact has never been lost sight of that Dr. Huff was doing and for the past ten years always has done what he deemed was for the best interests of the school, and for this he is entitled to the gratitude of the community.

There have been reports that the articles in question were either written or corrected by different persons. The editor wrote every word and is wholly responsible for the statements in every respect.

LIEUTENANT KESEMAN TO BE PROMOTED.

Lieutenant William Keseman, in the aerial service at Ellington Field, near Houston, Texas, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keseman of Orange, that he will be home on a furlough some time in July or August, and expects to have time to call on most of his friends in this section of the county.

"Billy" has received his commission as Lieutenant, and has been recommended for higher honors. He is an instructor in aerial gunnery, and states that it is very interesting. Mr. Keseman is carrying a few scars he received in a slight mishap with his machine.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS WRITES LETTER TO EXAMINER.

Following is a copy of a letter sent by Gov. Stephens to the Los Angeles Examiner recently:

State of California.
Governor's Office.
Los Angeles, Cal., June 17, 1918.
To the Editor Examiner,
Los Angeles, Cal.

My Dear Sir:—
In this morning's issue of the Examiner is an article purporting to be based upon an address delivered by me at the editorial dinner at Monrovia Saturday night.

Included in my remarks, as published by you, is the following paragraph:

"I greatly deprecate the bitter newspaper quarrel which is now taking the attention of the able editors of the Los Angeles press, which the nation needs now more than ever before in its history and when the people look to the press as to its schoolmasters. It is lamentable that now, when the nation wants the very finest patriotic philosophic talent to advise us, a business competition quarrel should have sprung up."

That paragraph I did not read or give utterance to in any form whatsoever.

As my address was from manuscript and as copies were furnished to the press, I am at a loss to account for this gratuitous addition to my remarks. In justice to myself, I must enter protest against attempts, for whatever reason inspired, to attribute words to me that I did not utter.

Yours respectfully,
(Signed) WM. D. STEPHENS.

TWO BOYS WILL LEAVE FOR CAMP JULY 22.

Michael Adair and Walter Rigdon are among those who will make up the number in this district for the call for July 22nd, and will entrain from Fullerton.

Rusher-Erriasson Wedding.

Something occurred Saturday afternoon at the meeting of the Southern California Holiness Association, in the auditorium at Arhamar, that was not on the published program, when Melvin E. Rusher and Bertha M. Erriasson of Upland were united in marriage by Rev. E. F. Wilde, one of the evangelists. Mr. and Mrs. Rusher were both converted at a revival meeting conducted by Rev. Wilde in Upland several months ago, which accounts for their coming here for him to perform the ceremony. Besides the congregation, the witnesses to the happy event were Mrs. E. F. Wilde and Rev. and Mrs. Jas. H. Knight, members of the Wilde-Knight evangelist party engaged at the campmeeting. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rusher were introduced to the audience by the minister, those present arising from their seats and formed in line and extended congratulations. After enjoying their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Rusher will reside in Ontario, where the groom is manager of one of the big canneries.

MASS MEETING HELD TUESDAY EVENING.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED MAKES REPORT.

There was a well-attended mass meeting in the Grammar school auditorium, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed June 20th to investigate the situation in the High school.

The meeting was called to order by City Attorney Alex. P. Nelson, and R. C. Turner was elected chairman and Miss Ethelyn Young secretary without opposition.

The report of the committee was read by Mr. Nelson, and stated that there had been a serious lack of harmony in the faculty of the school for the past two or three years, which was traceable to a limited number of the faculty, and particularly one member; that this member had on more than one occasion encouraged insubordination among pupils of her class. The report recommended that one member of the faculty be dismissed, and that the student body be curtailed.

M. A. Turner moved that the report be accepted and that the committee be discharged with thanks. Judge Louis A. Copeland thought that the committee should file a copy of its report with the High school board, and made an amendment to the motion, which was accepted, and when the motion was put there were some "noes," and Chairman Turner said that while the "Ys" appeared to have it, he would ask for a rising vote, but no one arose in opposition. The only opposition expressed was Mrs. H. C. Decker and Mrs. Owen D. Peters.

No extra copy of the report was obtainable, consequently it is not published.

The eight members of the committee who attended the meetings were all present. Besides Mr. Nelson, the members were: C. A. Johnson, Judge C. W. Warner and H. L. Heffner of Huntington Beach; J. A. Armitage of Sunset Beach; W. T. Vandruuff and E. R. Bradbury of Wintersburg, and W. Dean Johnston of Westminster.

Each member of the committee signed the report.

Mr. Farmer and Rancher:

Implement Sheds—Implement Sheds

All over the country the farmers are taking to heart the advice of Secretary of Agriculture Houston to build sheds to protect their farm implements.

The marked advance in prices of all agricultural implements has at last proved to the farmer that to leave any machinery out in the weather is simply throwing good money away.

We would be pleased to have you call and let us show you what we have to build this shed.

NEWS OF TALBERT & VICINITY

At Pacific Ranch.

Foreman B. W. Ellis is preparing for a new experiment in treating alkali soil. A dike will be constructed around a 20-acre field, which will be flooded and the water allowed to stand for 30 days. This, it is said, drives the alkali down into the soil, and when it is down not less than 18 inches the land will be seeded to alfalfa. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bauer of Los Angeles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Russell left Friday of last week to spend their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jones of Newbury Park, Ventura county. The beet irrigation on the big ranch has been completed and the crop is looking fine. Mr. Ellis will begin irrigating beans soon. The beans are looking very well on account of the alkali.

Some Barley Crop.

So far as known, L. T. Wells harvested the bumper barley yield this year, being 32 tons from a 6-acre field, more than five tons per acre. The only irrigation on the ground was before the field was plowed. The crop was sowed early. The ground has been planted with white Hickory King corn.

To Our Customers

As a war measure, and in line with suggestions of the National Council of Defense, we find that we must eliminate all unnecessary calls and deliveries.

The laundry confronts the problem of continued efficient service in the face of greatly increased costs of production in all departments. One of the main cost items is that of delivery, and when to this is added repeated calls by the driver for bundles not ready the first time, and to collect small amounts from customers who did not pay for their work when delivered, a hardship is placed upon the laundry as well as upon the driver, who must give the time for such extra calls.

In view of these facts we must earnestly request our customers to co-operate with us; TO HAVE THEIR BUNDLES READY UPON THE REGULAR PICK-UP DAY AND TO PAY CASH FOR ALL WORK UPON DELIVERY.

This request is in no way a reflection upon the integrity or the financial standing of any customer; it is issued solely as a stimulus to the efforts of a few who have been thoughtlessly negligent in preparing their bundles and making their payments.

Very truly yours,

The American Laundry

THE COMMITTEE REPORT.

The report of the committee appointed by the mass meeting to investigate the High school situation is probably one of the most comprehensive and drastic ever written on a similar subject in a rural community.

The personnel of the committee comprises men of undoubted integrity and those who are leaders in their respective lines of endeavor, consequently the findings unanimously approved by such men should be accepted by every law-abiding citizen of the community as a proper solution of the vital question they were called upon to investigate.

This committee was appointed by the two factions that were represented in the mass meeting, therefore it cannot be said that the body represented either faction, but the entire community, and the report should be taken as final by everybody who loves law, order and justice.

It will require time for the full benefit of the labors of this committee to be fully appreciated by the citizens of the community which they so faithfully served.

Some of the followers of Mr. Brown may feel disappointed that the committee did not recommend his re-instatement, but the committee decided that its functions should be confined entirely to the internal management of the school, and not become involved in the controversy over the principalship, as that question had already been disposed of by the school board.

The committee is to be congratulated upon its good work for the school district, and the members exercised excellent judgment in not mentioning the principalship contest.

The report of the committee was drafted by City Attorney Alex. P. Nelson; C. A. Johnson, general manager of the Holly Sugar Corporation, and Judge C. W. Warner. Other members are E. R. Bradbury, prominent merchant of Wintersburg; W. Dean Johnston of Westminster and W. T. Vanduff of Wintersburg, progressive ranchers, and J. A. Armitage of Sunset Beach, president of the Associated Chambers of Orange county and member of the Newport Harbor Commission. Chas. F. Ward of Talbert was the ninth member of the committee, but did not have time to attend any of the meetings.

WILL THE BOYS RETURN AFTER THE WAR?

If the war should terminate next week in a complete Allied victory, would the United States army now on French soil return to America at once?

There are some reasons to believe that the Liberty boys may remain in foreign service for some time after the close of the dreadful conflict, and that a million or more men will probably remain with General Pershing until stable democratic governments are established upon the thrones of the feudal kings and despots that now rule most of continental Europe.

When the collapse in German affairs of state arrives, as it certainly will at no distant date, there will be a chaotic condition existing in Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey, as there has been in Russia since the dethronement of Czar Nicholas, and it will probably be necessary to police all of the large cities of these countries with men wearing foreign uniforms—and the chances are that these uniforms will be the familiar khaki. How many soldiers may be required for this service, in the event that it is found necessary, is purely problematical, but that a very large force will be necessitated appears almost certain.

The first reason why this work may be done by the American Liberty boys is that the government of the United States has never had any other object in view than that of making the world safe for democracy by establishing constitutional governments for the Teutonic nations. The second, that the American government will be in better financial position to bear this burden and also a greater man power to draw from than England, France or Italy.

While the primary object of the entry of the United States into the war was the destruction of the German military party, the responsibility does not cease with the attainment of that objective, and the citizenship will need protection until the present form of tyrannical rule has been completely overthrown and forever submerged in the spirit of free institutions.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BE SATISFIED.

The solution of the High school question, as reported in this week's issue of the News, will probably not be entirely satisfactory to any of those who were directly or indirectly interested in the matter, and that is exactly why it should be satisfactory to everyone.

The only way that free government can exist is for the citizens to be tolerant and willing to recede from their extreme views in order to settle a question that involves the whole community. Neither faction has obtained its objectives, and yet the results are far more beneficial to the school district than had either side been completely successful.

One should remember that it is seldom that two persons agree on every question—an opponent in one fight may be a supporter in the next one.

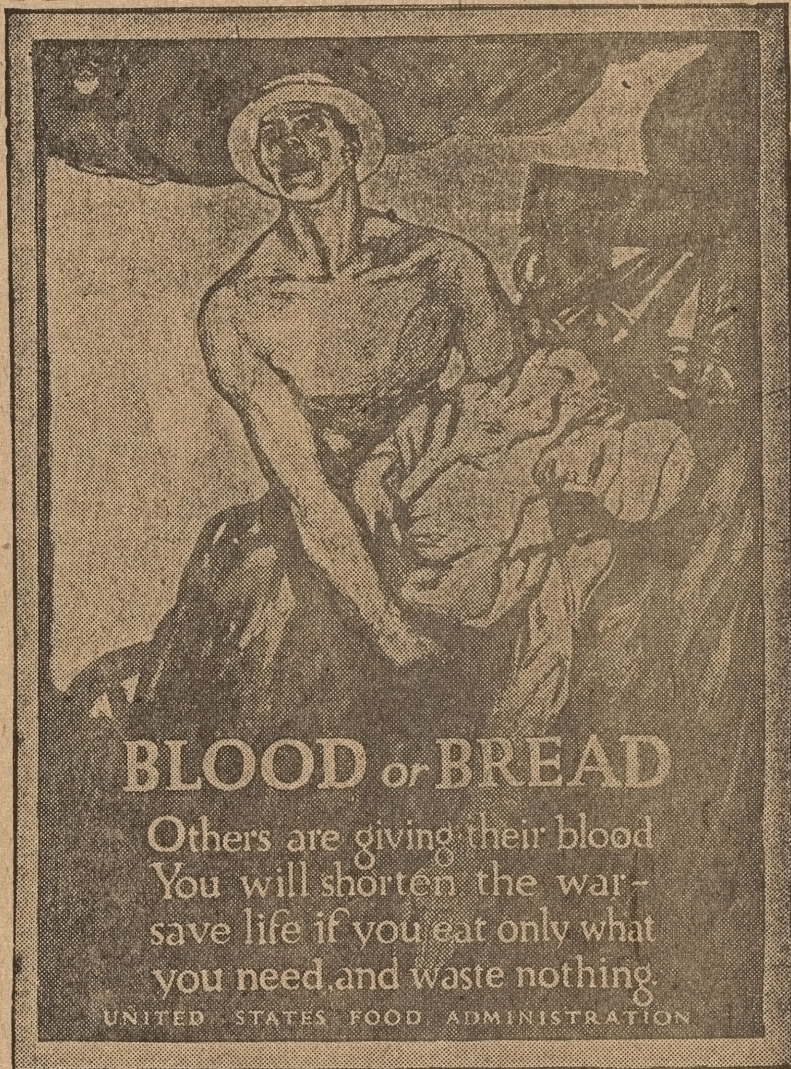

Some persons desire to express their opinion, but decline to grant others the same right if that opinion happens to disagree with theirs.

The editor of the News desires a right to express his opinion, and he is ready to shoulder a gun, if necessary, that every other citizen is granted the same privilege, so long as that opinion is loyal to the protecting folds of the American flag.

To thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.—Shakespeare.

We have had the morality of submission and the morality of chivalry and generosity; the time has now come for the morality of justice.—Mill (Subjection of Women).

To my inward vision things are achieved when they are well begun.—George Eliot.

UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION

EVERYONE MUST HELP.

Wars cannot be fought without money, and upon the Treasury centers every financial demand upon the Nation.

The rich of this country cannot alone meet the needs of the Nation; the men of the country cannot do it alone; the women of the country cannot do it alone; but all of us, the people of the United States, disregarding partizanship, forgetting selfish interests, thinking only of the supremacy of right and determining to vindicate the majesty of American ideals and secure the safety of America and civilization, can do the great and splendid work which God has called upon us to do.

W. G. McADOO,
Secretary of the Treasury.Plan Your War Garden Now,
Save Time and Money.

HELP INCREASE OUR EXPORT FOOD STOCKS

IN CITY and country more war gardens are needed this year than ever before. Patriotism prompted 2,000,000 Americans to plant gardens last year, according to estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture. Transportation facilities of the nation will be strained this year hauling munitions of war and foods for the Allies. The surplus food created by home gardens will help in the railroad problem. And the nation will eat less of the goods we must export—wheat, meat, fats and sugar. Every boy and girl that helps with the garden is helping win the war. Leaflets of instruction in garden making may be secured from the Department of Agriculture at Washington upon request without charge.

AMERICAN NAVY ELIMINATES WASTE

SLICING BACON ON BATTLESHIP

ACKIES in the American navy are classed as the best fed body of men in the world. In the ship's galleys every effort is made to eliminate waste.

In the upper photo one of the cooks on the North Dakota is operating a meat slicer that cuts bacon with the least possible wastage.

Fat is fuel for fighters. Bacon is badly needed in the allied armies and navies. The allied needs in pork products are 150,000,000 pounds monthly, three times as much as before the war.

Another waste eliminator on the North Dakota is the potato peeler, shown in the lower photo. Nothing is lost except the actual potato skin.

There is a sufficient quantity of po-

EDGAR L. MITCHEL THE NEW PRINCIPAL

ELECTED AT BOARD MEETING WEDNESDAY.

COMES FROM MONTEBELLO

Board Takes Quick Action On Committee Recommendation and Votes To Dismiss Miss Jean Wilson.

There was considerable school history made at the board meeting, Wednesday afternoon, and the results will be far-reaching in range and effectiveness.

The members of the board present were Dr. S. G. Huff, president; F. H. McElfresh, R. E. Larter and P. A. Isenor. W. T. Newland is still absent, being on his ranch in New Mexico.

There were six of the eight members of the committee appointed at the mass meeting of citizens present, being City Attorney Alex. P. Nelson, chairman; Judge C. W. Warner, secretary; C. A. Johnson, J. A. Armitage, W. T. Vanduff and W. Dean Johnston. The report was read to the board just as it was at the mass meeting Tuesday evening. Following the reading of the report, a lengthy discussion was indulged in, in which all of the committee except Mr. Johnston took part, and all members of the board. Dr. Huff said the report was all chaff to him, as he knew Miss Wilson so well that nothing could shake his confidence in her.

Mr. Vanduff said that one of his daughters had graduated from the school, and loved Miss Wilson, and the accumulated evidence against her with the committee had been a great shock to him. He had regarded Miss Wilson so highly in the past, he said, that he thought it was a mistake that she had not been given the principalship. He said that a letter filed with the committee from the principal that had charge of the school at Sanger, where Miss Wilson taught prior to coming to Huntington Beach, was unfavorable.

Mr. Johnson said that he wanted to acknowledge that he had been negligent about school affairs, having left the school his boy was attending entirely to others to look after, but he assured those present that he would not do so in the future, as the evidence with the committee convinced him that he did not want his son to attend the kind of a school that was being conducted here at the present time. The pupils, he said, should be taught obedience to law and order, and be surrounded by teachers of a high moral influence, and not by an atmosphere of deceit and insubordination, as such an influence would be reflected through the student.

Mr. Larter stated that Miss Wilson would have been dismissed two years ago had it not been for the great respect other members of the board had for Dr. Huff, who desired her retained.

After the committee had left the room, Dr. Huff said: "Gentlemen, what will you do with this report." Mr. Isenor moved that the clerk be instructed to notify Miss Wilson that her services would not be required for the next term, which was seconded by Mr. Larter, who suggested that she be given an opportunity to resign, and supported by Mr. McElfresh when the motion was put. Dr. Huff did not vote—at least, he did not say "No."

The question of electing a principal was then taken up, and a test vote showed two for Principal V. B. Brown and two for Edgar L. Mitchel. Three more votes were cast with the same result. An adjournment was almost taken once without any choice being made, but Mr. McElfresh and Mr. Larter, who had supported Mr. Brown, changed to Mr. Mitchel and made him the unanimous choice of the board for the management of the schools for the coming year.

Mr. Mitchel and Mr. Brown were each in an adjoining room during the deliberations of the board.

Mr. Mitchel has been principal of the school at Montebello for two years, seven years at Santa Maria, and six at Lompoc, and is a Stanford graduate.

The salary decided upon was $2,000 per annum.

Mr. Mitchel comes highly recommended by Supt. R. P. Mitchell of the Orange county schools and Supt. Mark Keppel of Los Angeles county.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchel have two children, a daughter, Judith, five years of age, who will be in the kindergarten, and Theodore, 8½, who will attend the Grammar school. The family will move to Huntington Beach next month.

SAYS THERE SHOULD BE SOME FISH PUT IN TANK.

S. S. Bergey walked along the promenade between the pavilion and bath house, Thursday, and, noticing the empty tank where the seal was confinned, with nothing but some rubbish in it, suggested that it should be filled with water and stocked with fish.

This is a splendid suggestion, and could be done at very slight expense, and the maintenance would be but a trifle, and the tank would then be of some interest to visitors, and not an objectionable feature as at present.

JULY FOURTH WAS FITTINGLY CELEBRATED.

LARGE NUMBER OF VISITORS ENJOYED THE DAY.

Independence Day was fittingly celebrated in Huntington Beach, and the events were appreciated by a large number of visitors. There were probably more machines parked here on this occasion than any day since the pier celebration June 21, 1914, the big day of the two days' celebration.

The number attending was probably between 2000 and 3000, the majority of the guesses placing the number between these figures. The visitors all had their pockets full of coin and were anxious to exchange it for something to eat, drink or bait their fishhooks with.

The trade in all lines that are represented on such days broke previous records. The volume of business at Obarr's Drug Store was the largest since the pier celebration. At Rigdon's Pharmacy the trade was the largest since the store opened for business, which was since the pier celebration. The restaurants were all swamped with business, and Delany's Fruit Store broke all records, while Mrs. Jackson, proprietor of Jackson's Candy Shop, reports that they could not have cared for any more business and that the receipts were much larger than on comparative dates.

D. W. Huston of the pavilion bowling alleys and fishing tackle had a strenuous day trying to care for all of those who desired to patronize his place. He was unable to anywhere near supply the demand for fish bait.

The fishing was not as good as it has been in the past few weeks; however, most of those who cast lines were rewarded to some extent.

A splendid feature of the day was the children's playground apparatus on the beach, which attracted a large number of children all day, the slide being favorite. Often there were 25 or 30 little folk in line waiting for a slide.

The great feature of the day was the address by S. Inui, a Japanese orator of international reputation, on the subject of "Japan's Part in the World War." The speaker was introduced by Rev. Paul K. Tamura of Wintersburg, in a few patriotic remarks. Mr. Inui thrilled his audience and fully sustained his reputation as an orator, and his speech will be published at a later date, as it was one of the best heard here in many a day.

The Japanese fencing and jiu jitsu wrestling and fencing, under the direction of Prof. Ito, a noted instructor of one of the jiu jitsu schools, was appreciated by a large number of spectators.

The prizes for the day were won by the following:

Boys' race, 12 years or under—George DeLapp, first, and Arthur Drew second.

Boys' race, 13 to 16 years—Lyndon Wells, first; Leslie Wupperman, second.

Girls' race, under 15—Melinda Spoonhauer, first; Dorris Fowler, second.

Girls' race, 15 and over—Hazel Black, first; Idonnah Conville, second.

Sack race for boys—Ashley Davis, first; Kenneth Snyder, second.

Sack race for girls—Helen Wardwell, first; Fay Snyder, second.

Potato race—Kenneth Snyder, first; Ronald Black, second.

Bicycle race—Martin Martinez, first; Kenneth Snyder, second.

Tug of war—Wintersburg team.

COBB'S HOLY LAND TRAVEL-OGUES.

Mr. Cobb of Los Angeles filled the Baptist church to overflowing every evening last week with his fascinating Palestine Travelogues. He will be here again next Sunday evening to repeat the lecture on Jerusalem, which was interrupted last Sunday evening by the lights going out during the electric storm.

The regular monthly meeting of the Red Cross will be held in the room at the library next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and all members are requested to attend.

The room has been completely renovated, and presents a much more attractive appearance than usual. There are now a sufficient number of machines for all who desire to assist in the work.

ALLIES DEMAND MORE CEREALS

American Meat Restrictions Relaxed to Effect Greater Wheat Savings.

ARGENTINE ARRIVALS SHORT.

Meat Supply Here Considerably Enlarged — Food Administration, However, Warns Against Waste.

The allies have made further and increased demands for breadstuffs, these enlarged demands being caused to some degree by shortage in arrivals from the Argentine. It is, therefore, necessary for the U. S. Food Administration to urge a still further reduction in the consumption of bread and breadstuffs generally if we are to meet our export necessities. The Food Administration has issued a statement explaining the situation in detail, particularly the reasons which lead it, for the purpose of centering effort for the time being upon the cereal situation to relax temporarily the restrictions on meat consumption.

Experience shows, this statement says, that the consumption of breadstuffs is intimately associated with the consumption of meat. For various reasons our supplies of meat for the next two or three months are considerably enlarged, and we can supply the allies with all of the meat products which transportation facilities render possible and at the same time somewhat increase our own consumption. In these circumstances the Food Administration considers it wise to relax the voluntary restrictions on meat consumption to some extent with a view to further decreasing bread consumption.

Conservation of food must be adjusted to meet necessities from time to time, for neither production, nor allied demands are constant factors, nor can any of these factors be anticipated for long periods in advance in the disturbed conditions in which we at present live. While the world situation is not one that warrants any relaxation in the efforts to eliminate waste or to relax economy in food, the Administration desires to secure better adjustment in food balances.

So long as the present conditions continue the only special restrictions we ask are the beefless and porkless Tuesday.

The meatless meal and the porkless Saturday are no longer asked.

The farmers of the United States are responding to the national call to increase hog production. Their increase, to all appearances, is being attained more rapidly. Of more immediate importance, however, are several complex factors which have effected an immediate increase in meat supplies.

The transportation shortage before the government took over the railroads, the bad weather in January and early in February, the large percentage of immature corn in the last harvest and the necessity of feeding this corn as rapidly as possible to save it from decay, have not only resulted in backing up the animals—particularly hogs—on the farms for a longer period of feeding, but have resulted in a great increase in their average weight and will result, with improved transportation conditions, which already appear, in larger than normal arrivals at market for the next two or three months. The weight of hogs coming to the market for the past two weeks indicates an increase in weight of from an average of 203 pounds last year to the almost unprecedented average of 232 pounds, or a net increase in their meat value of over 15 per cent. This is a distinct addition to the nation's meat supply. It therefore now seems certain that we have such enlarged supplies for at least some months to come, that we can not only increase our exports to the allies to the full extent of their transportation facilities, but at the same time can properly increase our domestic consumption.

The response of the public to our requests for reduced consumption of meat during the past few months has been most gratifying, and this service alone has enabled the government during this period to provide such supplies as transportation to the allies permitted.

The Administration also suggests that in those parts of the country where the old fashioned home preservation of pork is still the custom, this practice should be extended at the present time, as it will relieve the burden upon transportation to and from the packing houses and is economically sound as saving the cost of packing operations and at the same time will provide home supplies of pork to last over the months of decreased supplies.

The Food Administration desires to repeat that it does not want to give the impression that these are times when simplicity and moderation of living are not critically necessary, but that its sole desire is to secure an adjustment between our different food supplies and meet changing conditions from time to time and to keep the public fully and frankly advised of its position with the full confidence and reliance that whenever it becomes necessary renewed appeals for saving will meet the same loyal response as in the

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY.

Two Months' Vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weinschenk and daughter, Miss Fay, were in Huntington Beach Saturday on their way to the mountains for a two months' vacation. They formerly resided here and on their ranch near Westminster, but leased the ranch last year and moved to Los Angeles, while Miss Fay is attending Occidental College.

Mr. and Mrs. Renu Hill and children, Marion and Bernice, of Greenville, Pa., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floye Boggess. Mrs. Boggess and Mrs. Hill are cousins.

PULLETS ARE FINE LAYERS.

Some time ago mention was made of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor had some Barred Rock pullets that begun laying when 6 months old. Mrs. Taylor kept account of the number of eggs laid by these five young hens, and for the six months period prior to July 1, the number was 110 eggs, or two more than nine dozen, which is a fine showing for young hens.

ELECTRICITY BIG FACTOR IN IRRIGATION.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON CO. DOING ITS BIT.

Increasing the production of food-stuff $21,000,000 a year as a result of bringing 75,000 acres of land in Southern California and the San Joaquin Valley under production by electric irrigation during the past year, is a feature of a statement made by President W. A. Brackenridge of Southern California Edison Company recently, in reference to the announcement by the State Railroad Commission that the earnings of the company for the fiscal year were $6,758,425.06 and the surplus $1,511,941.30.

Discussing the work which the company and its subsidiaries have done in raising the annual increase of food production in Southern California to over $135,000,000, and its plans for further increasing the production, while enormously decreasing the consumption of oil and other portable fuels required for war purposes, President Brackenridge said:

"A total expenditure of $5,614,581.33 for new properties was necessary in order that the company and its subsidiaries could, during 1917, increase its production of hydro-electricity, provide transmission and distribution lines, in a region of fifty thousand square miles, to meet the demands of new business, chiefly created by agriculturists, who are complying with the policy of the government in increasing our food supply.

"Six hundred thousand barrels of oil, which would otherwise be consumed at steam plants, are set free for war purposes, by an expenditure of over two million dollars for additional reservoir capacity at Huntington Lake. This reservoir supplies the two Big Creek water power plants, which we acquired from the Pacific Light and Power Corporation. The reservoir capacity is increased from 50,000 to 90,000 acre feet.

"To carry out similar increases on other water power plants, approximately $500,000 was spent and it required nearly $3,000,000 for distributing lines and equipment and transmission systems necessary to carry electrical energy to 11,795 new consumers, making our total number of consumers at the time of filing our annual report with the Railroad Commission 178,824.

"On lands which heretofore were only negligibly productive, our lines were connected during the year to 899 motors attached to pumps for the irrigation of 75,000 acres of land, which, according to Chamber of Commerce statistics, will annually produce $21,000,000 worth of food stuffs. Ship-building, canneries, rolling mills, sugar factories, cement plants, planing mills, packing houses, refrigeration plants and wood-working machinery required large additional power installations.

"Without regard to the advance of every item that goes into the cost of construction and operation and the handicap of delays in shipment, we have increased our connected load 70,683 horsepower in one year and have been glad to bear our part of the war burden, and in doing so bringing about demonstrated results. Our present connected load is now 595,804 horsepower, but by reason of the wonderful diversity of the demands in a region approximately as large as the war zone, which is covered by our system, we have thus far met most of our requirements. If the demand came at one time, as is the case with city lighting, it would require plants many times the capacity of all that we possess, but by continually shifting the peak of the power demand, from manufacture by day, lighting in the evening, and irrigation at night, we have been able to keep fairly well abreast of the war production necessities, holding the consumption of oil, which has increased from sixty cents to $1.60 per barrel, comparatively low.

"Plans for an additional saving of 1,500,000 barrels of oil a year are back of a recent recommendation of the State Railroad Commission, concurred in by the Fuel Administration, that we make extensive additions to our water power generation.

"The maintenance of continuous and reliable service and the extensions to serve essential industries, and electric power for irrigation of agricultural lands, are of such paramount importance that we believe that whatever rate adjustments may be necessary to maintain the company in a strong financial position to provide these services can be safely left to the Railroad Commission of the state. We have received considerable assistance from consumers, who have purchased stock in our company in amounts necessary to finance extensions of our system for their requirements, thus adding to our already large number of stockholders throughout the vast territory which we serve in Southern California."

PUBLIC HEARING IN SANTA ANA JULY 18.

June 25, 1918.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Orange County Harbor Commission has applied for a War Department permit to construct a new outlet for the Santa Ana River so as to divert it into the Pacific Ocean at a point about two and one-third miles northwest of the present ocean wharf at Newport Beach instead of into Newport Bay where the river at present empties.

To consider this application, a public hearing will be held at 11:00 o'clock A. M., Thursday, July 18th, 1918, in Supervisors' room No. 15 at the county court house, Santa Ana, Cal.

The purpose of the hearing is to enable interested parties to submit in writing their views as to the necessity for or desirability of diverting the Santa Ana River into the Pacific Ocean. Persons interested are invited to be present at the hearing at the time and place mentioned, when all will be given an opportunity to present their views.

Oral statements for and against the diversion will be received, but it is much preferred that the ideas or views be presented in writing and submitted should be mailed to the undersigned in triplicate. These will be forwarded to the War Department at Washington and given full consideration, which may not be possible with oral statements. The written statements on or before July 12th, or brought to the hearing, where they will be read. Objectors, if any, to the diversion should state explicitly the reasons why objection is made.

"ONE HOUR" ON THE SCREEN SATURDAY NIGHT

"The Gown of Destiny" For Sunday Night.

"THE AUCTION BLOCK," BY REX BEACH, THURSDAY.

Saturday Night.

For sixty minutes two young people plight their troth in an isolated cabin in the Adirondacks, pledging unswerving loyalty until opportunity shall make them one. This is the moment of big suspense in the opening reel in "One Hour," the latest Hoffman-Foursquare, which is to be shown in this city at the Princess theatre on Saturday night.

For those who incline toward romance which is tinged with sentiment, and who likewise appreciate red-blooded action and a climax that affords satisfaction, "One Hour" is a picture that will take. There is no draggy action in this picture, which is repaid by many as the best production Harry Rapf has made.

On the contrary, it begins with a snap that instantly arouses interest over what is to follow. A young princess, Opal, being reared in a log cabin because her parents have been killed in a revolution, is not aware of her identity. Here she meets a young man, also a foreigner and a prince, but whose identity is cleverly kept hidden until the final scenes, when the climax occurs.

The incidents leading to the separation of the two young people, their final reunion and the satisfactory ending are many and out of the ordinary. Zena Keefe plays the role of Opal, and the stalwart prince is interpreted by Alan Hale. These two are featured, but the entire cast, we are informed, is of consistent merit, and the entire effort one to invite the consideration of all who demand superior photoplay material produced in a superior manner.

Sunday Night.

Andre Leriche, head designer for Madame Felice, smartest of Fifth Avenue modistes, was an ardent patriot. He longed "to do his bit" and help check the Iron Hand which menaced his La Belle France with extermination. As he sat smoking in his designing room, his heart bleeding with sympathy for his suffering countrymen, shame and disappointment crowded his soul. He wanted to be a warrior, to fight for his country, but fate has cursed him with the body of a pigmy and denied him the physical strength to wield a bayonet.

Andre worked on, continuing to turn out beautiful gowns which made Mme. Felice still more famous, and put his own earnings into Liberty Bonds. Then came the day when a customer twitted Andre and expressed surprise that he was not in France battling the Boche hordes. In a fury Andre rushed from the shop, straight into the offices of the French Consul and demanded that he be given passports to return home and die for his country.

Touched by the burning fervor of the little man before him, the consul did not have the heart to refuse him and so he told Andre that he would consider his case and let him know. There were anxious hours for Andre, while he said good-bye to his friends and told them he was soon leaving to strike a blow for bleeding France. But Andre Leriche was doomed to more shame and disappointment, for when the consul's answer came it was a polite refusal of his services as a warrior, and contained the advice that he could do his bit by sticking to his profession, so that other men more physically fit might be spared to fight the Boches.

Crushed and broken, the little man flung himself on his bed and fell into a troubled sleep. Then came a dream to Andre Leriche, the dream which made possible a magic gown. The part this wonder gown played in the war, and how, through it, Andre's home town and his father were saved from the enemy, are surprises which make the Triangle play, "The Gown of Destiny," an intensely emotional screen drama, in which Alma Rubens and an all-star cast appear.

Thursday Night.

Rex Beach's greatest novel, "The Auction Block," has been brought to the screen. Picturized under the direct supervision of the famous author and released through Goldwyn, this stirring life drama of a million girls in America's big cities and small towns, comes to the Princess theatre Thursday night.

"The Auction Block" will grip and hold you from the first moment to the last. The life action which has made Rex Beach's novels loved wherever books are known fills every reel; there is a "punch" in every scene. Among the more stirring moments are a fight in a New York gambling house raided by the police; the overturning of a great pot of molten steel in a Pittsburgh mill and the engulfing of a score of workmen; the lavish banquet given by the steel millionaire at which the "Gown of Destiny" is first women guests are golden meshbags, and so on almost without number.

Lorelei Knight is the daughter of a crooked country town politician and a shrewd, nagging mother. She is so beautiful her mother has never allowed her to turn a hand to household tasks for fear she will mar physical attractions which the mother hopes to turn to monetary profit.

Lorelei's brother, Jimmy, who has inherited the dishonest tendencies of his father and the shrewdness of his mother, makes an engagement by mail for Lorelei to be seen by the manager of New York's most famous "girl show." She is engaged at sight and her family moves with her to New York with the avowed intention of putting her on the matrimonial market for all she will bring—of putting her on the auction block to be knocked down to the highest bidder.

She is bought in marriage by the dissolute son of a millionaire, who appears to have more money than he really has. When she discovers this and he learns that she does not love him there is an awakening which results in pronounced domestic unpleasantness.

When Lorelei becomes the reigning beauty of the night world in which she lives her black sheep brother, impatient of the delay in the promised reward of her loveliness, turns to blackmail and other crooked schemes as a member of the forces of Max Melcher, who rules the underworld. Eventually Jimmy feels the pinch of the law, but not before he has compromised his sister and all but ruined what little promise of happiness there is for her.

In the course of the story Lorelei comes into contact with Jarvis Hammon, steel millionaire, and his satellites and slaves. One of the latter is a beautiful girl known on the stage as Lilas Lynn, but who is really Lily Levinsky, daughter of one of the mill workmen sacrificed to Hammon's greed for production records when he was superintendent of the mill. Her father was one of those killed in the mill accident, and Lily, or Lilas, has sworn to take the life of the man who took her father from her.

Eventually she accomplishes this in an apartment he has fitted up for her, but not before she reveals her identity and he threatens her with harm.

Lorelei, meanwhile, is busy at the self-set task of making a man of her young scamp of a husband. His father refuses to give him money and he is forced to go to work. He works with a will, but his craving for extravagant company and the stimulation of drink makes the regeneration he is fighting for hard.

Not until Lorelei leaves him does he come to a full realization of his misdeeds and sets about to win her love. When they are happy together the advent of a baby brings about a reconciliation between the young husband and his parents.

Rubye De Remer, who has been styled by one critic "New York's most beautiful girl," heads the cast of "The Auction Block." Other players are Tom Powers, Florence Deshon, Walter Hitchcock, George Cooper and Alec Francis.

A MINOR CHORD.

Earth echoes with a minor chord
Of ugly cannon roar,
Of clashing swords and bayonets,
Swift rivers filled with gore;
With groans and shrieks of millions
On bloody battlefields;
With maddened mother's curses and prayers,
Her sons to shield.

The awful war cloud thunders,
Blotting out our sun,
In darkness we are groping,
We're maddened, every one.
The wall of dying church creeds,
Whose Saviour's under sod—
When, lo! a voice from heaven—
"Be still; know I am God."
